Field Trip - Thursdays
10:00-12:00	Stanley Park Beach Explorations	Stanley Park , Oct 1	All	Come to the beach at low tide and explore the living wonders of tidepools! Build the perfect habitat, search for crabs and sea stars, sort seaweeds, spot shorebirds, and discover the many human connections to our seashores.	Minature Railway Ticketbooth at Stanley Park
12:30 - 2:00	Archaeology	Langley Centennial Museum , Oct 8	5-12	Students transform into archaeologists and excavate prehistoric and historic artifacts: measure, classify, and complete lab analysis sheets; and interpret how aboriginal and pioneer artifacts were once used.	9135 King Street, Fort Langley
12:30-2:00	Backyard Bug Prints	Langley Centennial Museum , Oct 8	K-4	Science and Fine Arts at the same time! In this workshop, students will classify familiar insects into categories based on their similarities and differences, and then use real printmaking materials to make their own bug print.	9135 King Street, Fort Langley
10:00-11:30	Aldor Acres Dairy Farm	Aldor Acres Dairy Farm , Oct 15	All	Your trip to the farm starts with a short video introducing you to dairy farming. Next, you move into the milking parlour theatre where you can comfortably observe the real milking. During the milking there will be a variety of things to try. Perhaps you will hand milk a live cow on the show floor, separate cream, make some butter, or feed the calves. Following the milking, groups will be given a guided tour through the cow & calf feeding and housing facility.	8301 252nd Street, Langley, BC

10:00-12:00	Aldor Acres Pumpkin Patch	Aldor Acres Pumpkin Patch , Oct 22	All	See the farm in the harvest season and go on a hayride and choose your own pumpkin. See baby animals in their natural environment and visit our famous hands-on farm animal display. See Peter The Great and our huge white oxen, Zorro and Zeldo and Leonard the llama. Visit includes a pumpkin that the child can carry.	24990 84th Ave. Langley, BC
10:30-12:30	Mini Police Academy	Vancouver Police Museum , Oct 29	K-4	Twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, the police are on the job in our city. This new program explores the sorts of work a police officer performs while on duty. In addition, students will learn what they can do to help the police do their job and how to keep themselves safe. This is an interactive program with age-appropriate activities that include storytelling, arts & crafts, puzzles, a scavenger hunt and role-playing.	240 E. Cordova St. Vancouver
12:30-2:30	Forensic Science	Vancouver Police Museum , Oct 29	5-12	In this program, students have the opportunity to solve a crime by examining and testing various pieces of evidence, duplicating the work of a forensic identification unit. Kidnapping Scene - Evidence includes DNA, impression evidence, blood spatter, crime scene documentation and more.	240 E. Cordova St. Vancouver

10:30-2:00	Estuary Exploration & Building a Community in Pioneer Times	Noons Creek Hatchery & Port Moody Train Museum , Nov 5	K-4	Estuary Explorations - Introduces the student to the Estuary, a place of edges where fresh water meets salt, where plants and animals must live in a habitat which is both wet and dry, salt and fresh, warm and cold. Students learn about food webs and habitat through games and by observation. What does it take to start a community? Participate in an art activity, recreating the budding town of Port Moody in 1907. Examine objects from turn-of-the-century facilities such as the pharmacy, the school, and the general store. Explore the Museum displays in a guided scavenger hunt.	Noons Creek - 300 Ioco Rd, Port Moody Train Museum - 2734 Murray Street, Port Moody
10:30-2:00	Stream Science & Industry and Community	Noons Creek Hatchery & Port Moody Train Museum , Nov 5	5-12	Stream Science Scientists measure the health of a creek in many ways: by its temperature, its pH, by what is dissolved in it whether seen or unseen, and even by what lives in it! Students make these measurements for themselves, and in the process not only learn how to collect data, but discover what makes our urban streams healthy or sick, bountiful or barren. Community in Pioneer Times. Industry and Community - How does industry impact a community? Learn about the railroad, lumber mills, fur trade and others as you play our industry bingo. Listen to the stories of industry workers of the past, handle objects and examine historical photos and documents.	Noons Creek - 300 Ioco Rd, Port Moody Train Museum - 2734 Murray Street, Port Moody
12:30-2:30	1st Annual Summit Art Show and Luncheon	Summit Campus , Nov 12	All	This is an opportunity for families to break bread and view the student masterpieces created during term one. Set-up, luncheon and on with the show are orders of the day.	Summit
